Blockchain-Based Distributed
Nft Computing Platform

Blockchain-Based Distributed Nft Computing Platform

NIP is a sharing economy-based computing resource sharing platform.

Users can share the unused idle computing resources for rewards, and NIP offers a variety of business models such as P2P, B2C, and B2BC, including individual sharing of idle computing resources from enterprises and institutions through a hybrid business model.

Development Background

● 2.1 Changes in NFT Trend

Entering into technical issues of the project, we can clearly explain that at the Technology level there are several standards for the creation of tokens, standards on which we will govern our platform:

ERC-20 standard

- Ethereum standard identifier for the creation of non-fungible tokens.

ERC-721 Standard

- Standard for the creation of non-fungible NFT tokens.

ERC-1155 Standard

- The distinctive feature of ERC1155 is that it uses a single smart contract to represent multiple tokens at once.

Binance Smart Chain (BSC)

- This dual chain architecture allows users to build decentralized applications and digital assets on one blockchain, and take advantage of fast trading to exchange one on the other.

Development Background

● 2.2 NFTinfinity Platform

- The best P2P swap.

The best NFT can be traded through a system that supports secure P2P swaps between users.

- NFT Social

You can exchange irreplaceable tokens with fellow collectors and interact with the world with your own NFT.

- Supporting promising creators and recruiting IP companies.

It supports promising creators selected by voting by NIPs, and famous media commerce companies, games, contents, We actively recruit several intellectual property (IP) companies such as platforms.
